EVOlUTION EARTH

AT SUNNY SIDE OF THE DOC

Peter Hamilton Consultants, Inc.

Dear Friends & Colleagues,

The success of our recent coproduction partnership attracted me to cover Love Nature’s Evolution Earth, a new original production that was announced today at SunnySide of the Doc.

The five-part series is produced by PASSION PLANET, in co-production with Love Nature, PBS and ARTÉ. This impressive group of partners has joined forces to create a stunning and ambitious series with a fresh look on how wildlife is adapting to our changing planet and even evolving before our eyes. The series is now available for pre-sale in non-commissioning territories via Blue Ant International.

Evolution Earth stands apart from other environmental-themed programmes with unexpected wildlife stories that are carried by a podcast-style narration that gives a modern,
